re: request and demand for a full investigation on my product uniform education bill of sale copyrights patent design exhibit and trademark dear gentlemen

this letter is to inform and advise you of my request and demand for a full investigation as to my product uniform education bill of sale copyrights patent design exhibit and trademark i personally sent a copy of the bill of sale copyrights patent design exhibit and trademark on my product uniform education a designed program for online education (classroom and outside for online education on the computer) at the time my product on uniform education was sent to your (stanford university) had several employees that were professionals professors employed and staff employees i personally strongly believe at the time my product was being introduced to your (stanford university) company your employees and staff received my product on uniform education along with the bill of sale copyrights patent design exhibit and trademark the stanford university employees took my product and left stanford university to start there own business called coursera robbing my product on uniform education but at the time they were only employees working for stanford university as you review this matter you will agree with me that your (stanford university) employees took my product uniform education quit employment with stanford university and started there own business.

i personally wanted to say that my product on uniform education bill of sale copyrights patent design exhibit and trademark personally was sent to harvard university new york university yale university princeton university usc university columbia university and rockefeller university, besides other universities because it was a simple easy and safe educational design programmed by me to make any type of education very simple but giving the best education studies in the world to the united states of america and nation my product on uniform education was sent to every state in the united states of america along with it going to all other countrys should you have any questions please contact me at
