The Sailor

i look across the sea there stands a man ready for me but this man is a shadow of a man, he watching me as i walk by every day and night, this shadow of a man stands right behind me, no one can see him but me he is my protector and guardian no harm will ever come to me as long as i believe in him

Dear Jo Anna,

Dear Jo Anna,

The International Library of Poetry sponsors a yearly poetry contest. Several thousand poets--all of whom are amateur writers--participate in our contest for various reasons. Many want to see their poem in print; many want the chance to win prizes; many just love writing poetry. It costs nothing to participate. Our initial packet of information to each poet explains the rules and regulations of our contest, including "You are under no obligation whatsoever to purchase anything."

I am delighted to inform you that your poem "The Sailor" has been awarded our prestigious Editor's Choice Award because it displays a unique perspective and original creativity -- judged to be the qualities most found in exceptional poetry. Congratulations on your achievement.

We award one $1000 cash prize each month and a $10,000 Grand Prize in January for the preceding year. All contest winners are automatically published whether or not they have purchased any product. If a poet is not a winner, he or she may still be included in one of our anthologies based on the merit of his or her work.

Your poem is also featured in a Deluxe Hardbound Edition, which, as expected, will soon be sold out. We have, however, reserved a limited number of copies that are now available only to poets included in this distinctive volume. Because you are one of these poets, and if you haven't already ordered a copy, or wish to obtain additional copies, this is your last opportunity to do so.

The release you sign to be published in any of our books grants us permission to print your poem. Based upon this, we do not pay royalties to contributors to our collections. However, they retain all copyrights for any and all other uses of their works.

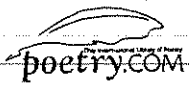

Oh, and one final note. Many people have asked if we can make available a commemorative plaque to present their poetry in formal fashion. We are glad to be able to do this. Your poem can be beautifully typeset on archive quality vellum with your choice of borders, then mounted on a walnut-finish plaque under lucite. The 10 1/2 by 13 inch plaques are truly impressive ways to exhibit your work. They also make wonderful gifts. Please see the enclosed material for further information. Again, congratulations on your achievement.

The pride and satisfaction of our poets is very important to us. We realize that without the opportunity our quality anthologies and Internet site provide, most amateur poets will not have as great an opportunity to receive recognition for their work. Several of our contributors have gone on to publish entire volumes of poetry and to otherwise expand their poetic horizons.

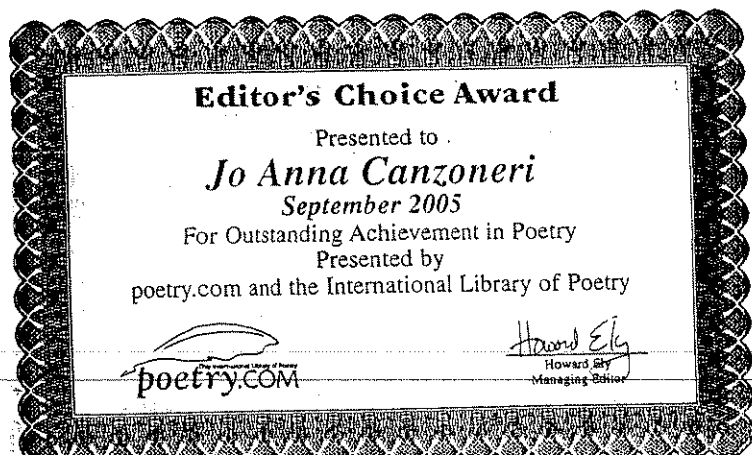

If you have any questions, please call the customer service department at 410-356-2000.

Thank you,

Claire Davis

Re: Proposed Invention for Color Extensions.

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

Thank you for your interest in partnering with The Wella Corporation with respect to your color extension idea outlined in your May 28, 2003 letter. However, at this time, The Wella Corporation respectfully declines to enter into any partnership.

We wish you luck in bringing your idea to the marketplace. In the future, if you do obtain patent and trademark rights, we may be interested in licensing your product.

Sincerely;

Dear Ms. Canzoneri,

Thank you for submitting your children's product idea to Toys "R" Us. As you may know, Toys "R" Us has selected Big Idea Group to evaluate its unsolicited inventor and new vendor product submissions. Big Idea Group is an R&D firm, thoroughly experienced in the process of developing products for kids.

During the evaluation process, Big Idea Group and a panel of industry experts will carefully review your product. We will consider it for appeal, originality, market potential, competition, safety, and manufacturing or intellectual property issues. Then on a quarterly basis, Big Idea Group will present the most promising products to key decision-makers at Toys "R" Us for their evaluation.

In order to review your product, we must have the following from you:

- A signed and returned Submissions Agreement. Please review the enclosed document and review it with a lawyer if you have any questions.
- Preferably a sample or prototype of your idea/product—or if a sample is not available, a description and sketches—along with information regarding the idea (please send duplicates as materials will not be returned)
- A completed inventor information form. See the enclosed.

If we fail to receive all of the above within 45 days from date of this letter, we'll assume that you don't wish your product to be evaluated and will dispose of the materials that you have already sent us for review.

Please be patient with us while your submission goes through the evaluation process. Since Big Idea Group will handle the initial evaluation process, please do not contact Toys "R" Us directly. Should you have any questions about this process, contact Big Idea Group directly via e-mail (Info@BigIdeaGroup.net) or phone (603-641-5955).

Thank you for your interest in Toys "R" Us and Big Idea Group.

Sincerely,

Toys "R" Us and Big Idea Group

Invention Submissions to Toys "R" Us

Toys "R" Us has partnered with Big Idea Group to review invention submissions. Panels of experts carefully review ideas, and the key decision-makers at TRU evaluate the panel's recommendations quarterly.

What You Can Expect

Due to the large volume of submissions, we cannot acknowledge or confirm receipt of your invention or product. If you wish confirmation, please send your package via registered mail.

Big Idea Group's review process takes at least 4-6 weeks. Please do not inquire about your submission status prior to then.

Please send only duplicates. We cannot return any materials.

We cannot make appointments to review your submission in person.

We will notify you whether or not we've selected your invention or product to present to Toys "R" Us.

How To Submit

If you are an inventor and are interested in selling or licensing your idea to Toys "R" Us, please complete the following steps:

1. Complete the enclosed Submission Agreement Form. Read it carefully and review it with a lawyer if you think appropriate. All ideas must have an accompanying signed Submission Agreement Form before they are reviewed. You might also want to read the Option Agreement and the License Agreement, available on our website at www.BigIdeaGroup.net, which are used if we decide to move forward with your submission. A summary of the Finalist Option Agreement is enclosed for your reference.
2. Fill out the enclosed Inventor Information Form.
3. Send only duplicates; BIG cannot be responsible for lost, stolen, misplaced, damaged, or undelivered prototypes, samples, and invention information.
Mail a clear summary description of your idea, a visual representation (prototype, photo, video, or drawing), a signed and completed Submission Agreement Form and a completed Inventor Information Form to the following address:

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

This will acknowledge receipt of your recent letter regarding an idea that you indicated might be of interest to us. Your letter was directed to the Legal Department as it is our responsibility to respond to unsolicited idea submissions on behalf of the Disney organization.

As I explained in my letter of November 6, 2006, our company's long-established policy does not allow us to accept for review or consideration any ideas, suggestions or creative materials not specifically solicited by us or our subsidiaries. Please understand that our intention is to avoid misunderstandings when projects are created internally which might be similar to submissions made to us from outside the company. Unfortunately, experience has taught us that, if we abandon our policy for one person, we will soon have no policy at all. Therefore, as required, I must return your letter without retaining any copies.

We hope you will understand our policy. Please be assured of our thanks for your interest in writing to us.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

This is in reply to your letter of June 30, 2007, to Kimberly-Clark Corporation regarding intellectual property claims you allege to have against Kimberly-Clark and its HUGGIES® diaper brand relating to a toy. You do not name or describe the toy.

You are demanding that Kimberly-Clark cease and desist from selling or offering for sale some item or items, but your letter does not state what the items are. You allege also that Kimberly-Clark has breached a contract with you relating to intellectual property, i.e., idea(s), copyright, patents, trademarks and trade secrets. Again, your allegations are not specific. Finally, you demand royalty payments for some unspecified item or items.

Without specifics as to your claim, the toy or other items in which you are claiming ownership, Kimberly-Clark is unable to reply to your letter. If you will provide specifics about the invention in which you are claiming rights and a copy of any contract that you believe you have with Kimberly-Clark, we will be glad to review your claim.

Because your letter shows two return addresses, we are mailing this letter to both.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

The Legal Department is in receipt of your letter directed to Bryan Shirtliff, Senior Vice President, Category Management at Rite Aid. I have thoroughly reviewed your letter and it does not seem to make any sense for several reasons. Your letter fails to identify any product or any patent/trademark that you believe may apply. Moreover, you fail to identify the contract to which you are referring to or any Rite Aid personnel you have allegedly dealt with. Without this crucial information, I am unable to evaluate any claim you believe you have.

Please refrain from contacting anyone at Rite Aid other than myself directly. Please forward any future communications to my attention to the address on this letter head.

Dear Ms. Mc Cormick Canozneri:

Thank you for contacting us.

We appreciate your interest, however we are reluctant to receive ideas from outside the company. Our experience has shown that the value of these ideas to Quaker is limited, and that misunderstandings may develop if Quaker later pursues a similar idea of its own.

However, if you would like to submit an idea for consideration, the first step is for you to complete the enclosed standard waiver form. The completed form with the information you would like us to evaluate should be sent to:

Pepsico Beverages & Foods
Quaker Division
Outside Idea Submissions
P.O. Box 049001, Suite 11-12

Upon receipt of the executed form, your idea will be given consideration, and you will receive a reply in approximately three weeks. However, The Quaker Oats Company is under no obligation to return any materials to you.

We hope this information will be helpful.

Dear Ms. Maccormick Canzoneri:

Thank you so much for taking the time to write to us here at Pepsi-Cola Company.

Although we are sincerely complimented that you thought to offer us your concept, Pepsi can neither accept nor consider ideas from outside the company. Our company receives many suggestions from the public. However, these ideas often mirror or closely resemble ones we are working on or that we have used before. In the past, this has led to confusion as to the ownership of these ideas.

Therefore, we have had to adopt a strict policy of not accepting any unsolicited business concepts from outside the company. Still, we were flattered that you offered to share your thoughts with us.

Again, thank you for thinking of us. We wish you all the best in all of your future endeavors.

MCCORMICK AND COMPANY

RE: MCCORMICK SAUCES

DEAR JOHN MCCORMICK:

I PERSONALLY HAVE AN IDEAL FOR THE MCCORMICK AND COMPANY WHICH I FEEL THAT THIS IDEAL USED IN ITS INVENTORY WOULD MAKE THE MCCORMICK AND COMPANY BIGGER AND BETTER BY ADDING SAUCES MADE FROM THE SPICES OR NOT FROM THE SPICES ALREADY IN ITS INVENTORY. SAUCES DIPS AND SOUPS Seasonings

I PERSONALLY WOULD LIKE TO GET PAID FOR MY IDEAL THIS IDEAL IS VERY GOOD FOR THE BRANCHING OUT OR INVENTORY FOR THE MCCORMICK AND COMPANY NOT JUST SPICES BUT SAUCES USED FROM THE SPICES OR SAUCES FOR ALL DIFFERENT FOODS SAUCES, DIPS AND SOUPS Seasonings THIS PRODUCT SAUCES SHOULD BRING THE BUSINESS AND COMPANY TO THE FULLEST POTENTIAL, BUT YOU WOULD BE MAKING DOUBLE THE AMOUNT OF MONEY ADDING IN THE INVENTORY THE SAUCES TO THE MCCORMICK COMPANY ALL OVER THE WORLD

PLEASE SEE ATTACHED CONFIDENTIAL AGREEMENT AND PRODUCT DESCRIPTION FOR YOUR REVIEW

Dear Ms. Canzoneri-McCormick:

We have received your letter December 17, 2006, and I have checked to determine whether or not your original information was received by us. We have no record of your product suggestion in any department that might be involved in reviewing a submittal of this nature, like marketing, consumer services or our legal department.

After doing some research into the development of the Ben & Jerry's® milkshakes, I have found out that we started researching formulations and a marketing strategy for the product three years ago. At the time of your original paperwork—dated July 22, 2005 as noted in the paperwork we received on 12/21/06—we were well on the way to completing our plans for the milk shake product.

We certainly appreciate your interest, and want to encourage your support of our products by enclosing a few coupons. We'll do our best to make sure your experiences with Ben & Jerry's® will be as flavorful as you anticipate.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

Your letter concerning a product description form has been referred to me.

Unfortunately, Unilever does not accept confidential unsolicited ideas for products from consumers. Unilever's vehicle for accepting unsolicited ideas is through its website "www.ideas4Unilever.com." You can probably appreciate that since Unilever conducts a substantial amount of R&D in-house it does not want to receive confidential ideas, which might duplicate its own ideas, from consumers.

We are returning your letter and enclosures. Please do not send Unilever any information which you wish to have kept confidential. Moreover, if you choose to submit an idea to Unilever, you would need to do so through the Ideas4Unilever.com website. As with any legal issue, it may be advisable to consult an attorney before proceeding.

We are retaining one copy of your correspondence in our legal files in case any questions arise.

I am sorry if our response is disappointing, but I do thank you for your interest in Unilever.

Very truly yours,

Launch date	July 15, 1996

MSNBC is a 24-hour cable news channel in the United States and Canada; its name is a combination of Microsoft Network and NBC. Additionally, the online news site MSNBC carries the same content as MSN, featuring stories from MSNBC, NBC, original pieces and sometimes exclusive content, viewed internationally.

Two partnerships with the network MSNBC, were founded in 1996 by Microsoft and General Electric's NBC unit, which is now NBC Universal. Although Microsoft and NBC share operations of the company as of founding, it was announced on December 23, 2005 that NBC Universal would purchase a majority stake in the television network, which left Microsoft with 18%. The two companies remain 50-50 partners in cablecast.

MSNBC cable is currently America's 3rd most watched cable news channel, behind Fox News and CNN but ahead of Headline News. The news station broadcasts primarily out its studios in Secaucus, New Jersey. On October 20, 2006, it was announced that MSNBC will soon be moving from Secaucus to NBC's main headquarters in New York City.

MSNBC, like sister channel CNBC, shares the NBC logo of a rainbow peacock.

Dear Ms. McCormick-Canzoneri:

This will acknowledge, with thanks, your recent letter regarding a product idea that you indicated might be of interest to us. Your letter was directed to legal as it is our responsibility to respond to unsolicited idea submissions on behalf of the Disney organization.

Although we appreciate your interest, I must explain that our company's long-established policy does not allow us to accept for review or consideration any ideas, suggestions or creative materials not specifically solicited by us or our subsidiaries. It is our intention to avoid misunderstandings when projects are created internally which might be similar to submissions made to us from outside the company.

We recognize that this policy is sometimes a disappointing one when someone like yourself would simply like us to consider her creative ideas. Unfortunately, experience has taught us that, if we abandon our policy for one person, we will soon have no policy at all. Therefore, required, I must return your correspondence and enclosures, unexamined and without making any copies.

Understand our policy. Please be assured of our thanks for your interest in

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

This will acknowledge receipt of your recent letter regarding an idea that you indicated might be of interest to us. Your letter was directed to the Legal Department as it is our responsibility to respond to unsolicited idea submissions on behalf of the Disney organization.

As I explained in my letter of November 6, 2006, our company's long-established policy does not allow us to accept for review or consideration any ideas, suggestions or creative materials not specifically solicited by us or our subsidiaries. Please understand that our intention is to avoid misunderstandings when projects are created internally which might be similar to submissions made to us from outside the company. Unfortunately, experience has taught us that, if we abandon our policy for one person, we will soon have no policy at all. Therefore, as required, I must return your letter without retaining any copies.

We hope you will understand our policy. Please be assured of our thanks for your interest in writing to us.

Very truly yours,

Re: Your Letter to Continental International

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

As Managing Attorney of Litigation & Intellectual Property at Continental Airlines, your letter to "Continental International" dated August 17, 2008, a copy of which is attached, has been forwarded to me. Although your letter was addressed to Continental International, we presume that you intended this letter to refer to Continental Airlines. If not, please let me know and we will close our file on this matter. If, however, your intent was to address Continental Airlines, please direct any future communications on this matter directly to me.

Although we are not able to understand many of the allegations made in your letter, particularly many of the numbered statements, it appears to allege infringement of certain intellectual property and contract rights. It is Continental's long-standing policy not to knowingly infringe the rights of others and to investigate specific allegations of infringement. The information provided in your letter, however, is not sufficient for us to reasonably investigate this matter. Specifically, we are unable to determine from your letter what intellectual property or other rights you allege are infringed. For example, your letter does not identify any contract between yourself and Continental, United States Patent number, registered trademark number, or any other specific description of the intellectual property or other rights that are allegedly being infringed by Continental.

In addition, you have not identified any actions of Continental Airlines that allegedly infringe your intellectual property or other rights. Your letter contains the handwritten words "Air Compac" near the "Re:" line, but we are unsure what that is intended to mean.

In order for Continental to understand and reasonably consider the demands made in your letter, we request that you provide specific information identifying 1) the intellectual property and/or other rights that you claim to own, and 2) the actions of Continental Airlines that allegedly infringe those rights. Without more, we simply do not have enough information to understand or consider the allegations made in your letter. We look forward to receiving your response.

Very truly yours,

Scott J. Garber

Dear Ms. Canzoneri-McCormick:

We appreciate your taking the time to contact us and share your idea for laptop-type computers in the back of each airplane seat for our Customers' use. I appreciate the opportunity to respond.

Certainly, your idea is a good one; however, while the concept alone seems simple enough, there are many other factors that come in to play when we make changes to even the simplest part of the aircraft design. Unfortunately, in much the same way that it costs more to add power windows to your car after it is built, it costs us to retrofit our aircraft to make such changes. There is also the additional weight added to aircraft to take into consideration. Add to that the cost to purchase and install this product, as well as the time spent gaining FAA approval for the changes to our fleet, and we just do not feel a change of this nature would be beneficial to us.

Nonetheless, we wish you the best of luck with your venture, and we thank you again for sharing it with us. We hope that we will have the opportunity to welcome you onboard should your future travel needs take you to cities we serve.

Sincerely,

Summer Cook

Dear Jo Anna,

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

Thank you for your recent correspondence. We truly appreciate you taking the time to write us. Upon review of your letter, it was determined that it included an idea or suggestion and so was referred to the Consumer Innovation Office for handling.

Thank you for contacting General Motors.

Given the size of our company, we have a standard process for receiving ideas. This process prevents us from considering any ideas or suggestions without a signed waiver. Unfortunately, this means that we must return your correspondence and ask that you submit your idea or suggestion on our secure website at www.fordnewideas.com. Once you've completed the online process, we can then route your non-confidential information to an experienced technical reviewer for consideration.

We certainly appreciate your enthusiasm and desire to share your ideas with GM. We suggest that you visit the following website that explains how to submit your idea for your new patent:

If you have any questions concerning this process, or if you are having difficulty submitting your idea online, please feel free to email us at newideas@ford.com and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

<http://www.gmideas.com/index.jsp>

Again, thank you for your interest in Ford Motor Company.

Thank you again for contacting General Motors. We wish you good luck in your endeavor!

Regards,

Sincerely,

Product Enhancement Ideas

Many ideas submitted for enhancements to our products are not new and have been featured before on our products, or another manufacturer's products. As a result, it would not be possible for us to investigate each one to determine its origin.

However, customer satisfaction is our primary goal. To ensure that satisfaction, our engineers continually review our products, while also anticipating the needs and preferences of as many different users as possible.

While we are unable to act on individual suggestions, we still appreciate hearing from those who want to share their comments about our products.

Thank you for considering Honda and for your interest in presenting a product idea to us.

SUBJECT: UNSOLICITED IDEAS/PATENTS

The many organizations responsible for the manufacturing and marketing of Mitsubishi Motors North America, Inc. ("MMNA") products have people constantly working on new ideas with respect to the products. Experience has shown that there is always a possibility, and indeed, the likelihood that an idea submitted from the outside will be similar (or the same) to one that may already be well known, previously considered or presently under development by the company. Therefore, as a matter of company policy, unsolicited ideas and patents must be refused and returned without consideration. For reasons which we are sure you can appreciate, the Legal Department returns such materials to their writer with no consideration at all, keeping a copy of our letter in our department file as a matter of record.

Again, on behalf of MMNA, we thank you for your interest. However, I am sure you will understand the necessity of adhering to the company's policy in this situation and our decision to return your original correspondence to you.

Dear Ms. Canzoneri-McCormick:

Your proposal has been received by legal staff of American Honda's Product Regulatory Office. We hope to assist you in understanding our company's policies on idea submissions, so we have outlined our submission requirements below.

Inventions and Other Product Ideas

Our experience has shown that many of the inventions and ideas submitted from outside the Honda organization are known to us already, or are similar to those currently under development within the company.

In order to reduce the possibility of a conflict between ideas submitted and our own projects, a copy of a valid patent issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office must accompany all design or invention descriptions. We will not consider any submission that does not include a valid patent.

If you have a patent and would like for us to consider it, you may send a copy to our Product Regulatory Office at the address above. Please be sure to include: Mail Stop 500-2C-10A.

Confidentiality

Submissions sent to us on a confidential basis cannot be considered and non-disclosure agreements are not accepted. As a related matter, Honda is unable to advise anyone on the feasibility of patenting a particular device or technology.

Advertising Ideas

Honda's advertising agencies work with internal departments to provide all the advertising for the company, therefore we are unable to use advertising ideas from anyone else outside the company. Similarly, we are unable to use any unsolicited marketing ideas, advertising slogans or product name ideas.

Dear Ms. Canzoneri-McCormick:

Firstly, we would like to thank you for your letter to Philips Electronics in which you inform us that you have an idea that may lead to a product.

Unfortunately, Philips will not accept any submission as a disclosure in confidence since it is by no means inconceivable that Philips is already working on the same or a similar idea. Inventions which have been patented will be considered however, upon receipt of a copy of the patent. Your idea must be covered by an issued patent before we can consider it.

Yours faithfully,

RE: Unsolicited Idea Submission

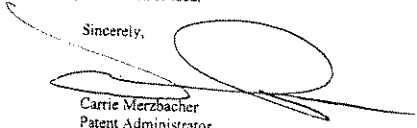

Dear Ms. Canzoneri-McCormick:

This is in response to your recent letter to Sony. Please be advised that it is Sony policy not to accept, for review or consideration, any unsolicited idea submission(s) which are not already protected by an issued Patent. In view of the fact that your idea was not accompanied by an issued patent, we must return to you all original materials submitted to us.

Should obtain patent protection on your idea and that application has "issued" as a Patent, you are welcome to submit that patent to us for full consideration and review.

We hope that the foregoing meets with your understanding and we sincerely appreciate your consideration of Sony relative to your product and/or idea.

Dear Mrs. McCormick Canzoneri:

With reference to your suggestion, we hope you can appreciate that Estee Lauder maintains both research and creative staffs to continuously improve our products and services. It is, therefore, quite possible that one of our employees or outside consultants is already familiar with ideas forwarded by consumers. For this reason, we adopted a policy which precludes acceptance, consideration, or retention of ideas, product names, formulations, and so forth which do not originate within our organization.

Dear Ms McCormick Canzoneri:

As a division of Procter & Gamble, we at Clairol are committed to providing the highest quality products to consumers. Our commitment to quality dictates that we adhere to certain general rules of conduct in our business. One of these business rules is that unsolicited ideas or suggestions received by Clairol from non-employees are not universally accepted for review. Thus, we are sorry to tell you that we are unable to accept your suggestion.

Given the realities of the business world, consideration of ideas or suggestions from non-employees brings a very real risk of litigation or questions related to how and when ideas were developed and handled. Any such disputes can lead to serious business problems. As a result, we have adopted a very strict policy regarding unsolicited ideas. While we realize that this policy may sometimes cause us to overlook useful suggestions, we believe that in the long run it is in the best interest of the Company and our stockholders.

While we have no doubt that your letter is intended only to bestow useful information upon Clairol, our policy dictates that we return the information you sent us.

Nevertheless, we thank you for taking the time to write to us to express your thoughts regarding our business and we wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Dear Ms. Mc Cormick Canzoneri:

Thank you for taking the time to share with us a proposal for how we might incorporate your program or idea into our advertising and promotion strategies.

We appreciate your providing us with this opportunity. However, we regret that we are unable to take advantage of your offer due to our present plans and commitments. As you may know, Kellogg retains advertising and promotion agencies whose primary responsibility is the development of creative expressions that will support the marketing of our brands. The final creative direction for each of our advertising or promotion themes is the product of many internal considerations, including a perspective on the complete scope of our marketing plans. This makes it difficult for unsolicited ideas to provide a viable option for our company. We hope that you can understand our position on this.

Thank you, again, for submitting your proposal to us for consideration. We wish you well in this endeavor.

Dear Ms. McCormick Canzoneri,

Thank you for your correspondence. We appreciate consumers like you who think of ConAgra Foods when identifying the companies with whom they want to share their ideas.

As I suspect will come as no surprise to you, ConAgra Foods employs hundreds if not thousands of employees whose role includes generating and developing new ideas for the company, whether it be for new products, new marketing campaigns, and the like. Given this, we are not able to accept and review the idea you sent us, as we do not want to create any potential confusion as to the source of any similar ideas that we may separately and independently develop. Please understand, however, that our inability to accept your idea does not reflect in any way on the nature and quality of the idea.

Please understand that your submission does not create any confidential relationship with us. Thank you again for your interest in ConAgra Foods.

We appreciate your patronage and value our customers. We hope you will continue to enjoy our line of quality food.

Sincerely,

Consumer Affairs

Re: Unsolicited Submission (13594-0100)

Dear Ms. Canzoneri:

We represent Dr. Arthur Agatston and the South Beach Diet businesses and brand.

Your letter to the South Beach Diet office, dated August 11, 2008, along with certain enclosed materials, was forwarded to me by Dr. Agatston's office.

As you can imagine, Dr. Agatston receives numerous unsolicited submissions which may include ideas, proposals, plans and formats. As a matter of general business policy and particularly in light of his substantial overall business relationship with Kraft Foods, Dr. Agatston does not review or consider any unsolicited submissions. Unfortunately, no exceptions can be made to this rule.

I am, therefore, returning to you herewith your letter of August 11, 2008 and the enclosed materials.

Sincerely,

Richard B. Heller

Dear Ms. McCormick Canzoneri:

Thank you for contacting Sara Lee® Food and Beverage regarding your idea. Your interest in our company is greatly appreciated. Unfortunately, we are currently no longer accepting ideas from consumers.

As you may be aware, Sara Lee® employs many professional inventive individuals for the purpose of creating and developing new ideas and concepts for products and packaging for use in our business. Some are used, some are put on the shelf for future consideration, and many ideas and concepts are never used at all. In addition to these sources, Sara Lee® receives thousands of ideas each year from people like you. As I am sure you can appreciate, it is unlikely that any particular idea is novel or will be suitable for our use. Therefore, I did not forward the information you provided.

We appreciate the time you took in submitting your idea. The company wishes you good luck in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Amanda F.

AUTHORIZATION FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF INTERIM ASSISTANCE INITIAL PAYMENT OR INITIAL POSTELIGIBILITY PAYMENT

Name: JoAnna Canzoneri, Address: 342 North Atlantic Boulevard Alhambra CA 91803, Social Security Number: 560-88-6058

The term "State" means the Los Angeles County which is the California county Interim Assistance (IA) agency that the California Department of Social Services has an interim assistance reimbursement agreement with and that paid you public assistance.

The term "SSS/SSP benefits" means Supplemental Security Income benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act and State Supplemental Payment benefits, also under Title XVI of the Social Security Act.

What am I authorizing by signing this authorization form if I checked the block called Initial Payment Only? Initial Payment Only

- If I am found eligible to receive SSS/SSP benefits, I understand that I am authorizing the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration (SSA) to send to the State: The first retroactive payment of SSS/SSP benefits on my initial claim, or An amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State and any other California IA agency paid me when law restricts the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me.

What am I authorizing by signing this authorization form if I checked the block called Initial Posteligibility Payment Only? Initial Posteligibility Payment Only

- If I am found eligible to receive SSS/SSP benefits, I understand that I am authorizing the Commissioner of SSA to send to the State: The first retroactive posteligibility payment of SSS/SSP benefits following a suspension or termination of my SSS/SSP benefits, or An amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State and any other California IA agency paid me when law restricts the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me.

How will the State be paid for the reimbursable public assistance it gave me if I checked the block called Initial Payment Only? If I am found eligible to receive SSS/SSP benefits, SSA will send the State my first retroactive SSS/SSP payment or an amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State paid me when law restricts the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me. The State may:

- Deduct from my first retroactive SSS/SSP payment an amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State paid to me, or on my behalf, when law does not restrict the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me, or Have SSA send the State an amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State paid to me, or on my behalf, when law restricts the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me.

for months beginning with: the first month for which I am eligible to receive an SSS/SSP payment and ending with, and including:

- the month my SSS/SSP payments begin, or the following month if the State cannot promptly stop making its last public assistance payment to me.

The State cannot be reimbursed for public assistance it paid me if that public assistance was financed wholly or partly from Federal dollars.

How will the State be paid for the reimbursable public assistance it gave me if I checked the block called Initial Posteligibility Payment Only? If I am found eligible to receive SSS/SSP money, SSA will send the State my first retroactive posteligibility SSS/SSP payment or an amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State paid me when law restricts the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me. The State may:

- Deduct from my first retroactive posteligibility SSS/SSP payment an amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State paid to me, or on my behalf, when law does not restrict the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me, or Have SSA send the State an amount equal to the amount of reimbursable public assistance the State paid to me, or on my behalf, when law restricts the manner in which my SSS/SSP money can be released to me.

for months beginning with: the day of the month I again become eligible to receive an SSS/SSP payment following a period of suspension or termination, and including:

- the month my SSS/SSP payments resume, or the following month if the State cannot promptly stop making its last public assistance payment to me.

Can the State use this authorization for an Initial Payment of SSS/SSP benefits and an Initial Posteligibility Payment of SSS/SSP benefits? No, I am authorizing the State to use this form for only one payment event. If both payment blocks are checked, this form is not binding on me or the State. If both blocks are checked, the State and I must sign a new form with only one of the payment blocks checked.

Does this authorization serve as a protective filing for SSS/SSP benefits? Yes, if I checked the Initial Payment Block, signing this form serves as a signed statement of my intention to claim SSS/SSP benefits if I have not filed an SSS/SSP application as of the date this authorization is received by the State. My eligibility for SSS/SSP benefits may begin as early as the date the State receives this signed form if I file an application for SSS/SSP benefits at a social security office within sixty (60) days after the date this form is signed as a notice from SSA that I have sixty (60) days from the date the State receives this form to file for SSS/SSP benefits. However, if I do not file an application for SSS/SSP benefits at a social security office within sixty (60) days after the date, then I understand that I cannot rely on this authorization to claim SSS/SSP benefits and this authorization no longer protects my filing date for SSS/SSP benefits.

How long is this authorization binding on me and the State if I checked the Initial Payment Block? If I checked the Initial Payment Block, this authorization is binding on me and the State for 12 months beginning with the date SSA received the signed authorization provided that SSA receives the authorization within thirty (30) calendar days of the date I sign it. If the State or the interim assistance agency does not notify SSA within thirty (30) calendar days of the date I sign it, the authorization is not binding on me or the State. However, if I notify SSA about this authorization electronically, the thirty (30) calendar days do not begin until the day of the month that SSA requires the State to transmit the electronic notification that it has obtained a signed authorization. Also, this form must be signed and dated by both a State representative and me to be a valid agreement that authorizes the State to receive interim assistance reimbursement from my SSS/SSP payments. Furthermore, if I file a timely request for an administrative or judicial review within the time permitted under SSA's regulations, this authorization will remain in effect, even if beyond the 12 month period until such time as the permit under SSA's regulations, this authorization will remain in effect, even if beyond the 12 month period until such time as:

- SSA makes the first retroactive payment of SSS/SSP benefits on my initial claim, or SSA makes a final determination on my claim, or The State and I both agree to terminate this authorization.

How long is this authorization binding on me and the State if I checked the Initial Posteligibility Payment Block? If I checked the Initial Posteligibility Payment Block, this authorization is binding on me and the State for 12 months beginning with the date SSA receives the signed authorization provided that SSA receives the authorization within thirty (30) calendar days of the date I sign it. If the State or the interim assistance agency does not notify SSA within thirty (30) calendar days of the date I sign it, the authorization is not binding on me or the State. However, if I notify SSA about this authorization electronically, the thirty (30) calendar days do not begin until the day of the month that SSA requires the State to transmit the electronic notification that it has obtained a signed authorization. Also, this form must be signed and dated by both a State representative and me to be a valid agreement that authorizes the State to receive interim assistance reimbursement from my SSS/SSP payments. Furthermore, if I file a timely request for an administrative or judicial review within the time permitted under SSA's regulations, this authorization will remain in effect, even if beyond the 12 month period until such time as:

- SSA makes the first retroactive posteligibility payment of SSS/SSP benefits following a suspension or termination of my SSS/SSP benefits, or SSA makes a final determination on my appeal, or The State and I both agree to terminate this authorization.

What rights and appeals are available to me under this authorization? The State is required to:

- Pay me any balance due from the retroactive SSS/SSP payment within 10 working days of their receipt of my SSS/SSP payment. Give me a written notice explaining: How much SSA repaid the State for interim assistance it paid me; The balance, if any, due to me unless the Social Security Act requires SSA to pay me such balance. (In such an event, SSA will notify me of the manner in which the balance will be paid to me.); and That I will have an opportunity for a hearing with the California Department of Social Services if I disagree with its actions regarding repayment of interim assistance or my action the IA agency took regarding this authorization.

AUTHORIZATION FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF INTERIM ASSISTANCE GRANTED PENDING SSS/SSP ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION

I understand that the public assistance paid to me, or on my behalf, by interim assistance if it is paid during the period or time that my supplemental security income (SSI) state supplementary payment (SSP) eligibility is being determined. (Assistance that is wholly or partly with Federal funds shall not be considered interim assistance.)

In consideration of such interim assistance paid to me, or on my behalf, I authorize the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, through the Social Security Administration (SSA) to send the full payment of any SSS/SSP benefits, for which I may be determined eligible, to the above Agency.

I authorize the above Agency to retain from that payment an amount equal to the sum of public assistance payments the above Agency and other California interim assistance agencies paid to me, or on my behalf, to meet my basic needs from before and after the date of my authorization, but limited to the period my SSS/SSP eligibility determination was pending.

Beginning with the month in which I am found eligible for an SSS/SSP payment and ending with the month my SSS/SSP payments begin.

Beginning with the month for which my SSS/SSP payments are reinstated after a period of suspension or termination and ending with the month my payments resume.

I understand that after making the above deduction from my SSS/SSP payment, the above Agency shall pay to me the balance, if any, no later than the 10th working day from the day the above Agency receives my payment from SSA.

I understand that if I feel that the amount deducted from my SSS/SSP retroactive payment is more than the amount of public assistance paid to me, or on my behalf, by the above Agency, or if I feel the above Agency failed to pay me the full amount within the ten (10) day period, I have a right to request a hearing from the State Department of Social Services. This request must be filed within ninety (90) days of the date the above Agency notifies me of the receipt and distribution of the payment.

I understand that if I file an appeal claim for SSS/SSP benefits at a Social Security Office within 60 days of the date the above Agency notifies the signed form, my eligibility for SSS/SSP benefits can begin as early as the date the above Agency receives this signed form.

I understand that this authorization is effective from the date the above Agency receives the signed form and that it will cease to have effect at the end of one (1) year from the date the above Agency receives this signed form, unless I file for SSS/SSP within that time, or one of the events listed below occur earlier, in which case the authorization will cease to have effect as of the date of such event:

- SSA makes an initial payment or reinstates payment on my claim; SSA denies my claim and I do not file a timely appeal of that determination; The above Agency and I agree to terminate this authorization.

at the end of one (1) year from the date the above Agency receives this signed form, or at the end of the maximum period within which to request review of the determination to suspend or terminate my SSS/SSP payments, whichever period of time is longer, unless I file a timely request for review, or one of the events listed above occur earlier, in which case the authorization will cease to have effect as of the date of such an event.
