Dear Ms. Canzoneri

The proposal you sent to Bill Gates was forwarded to me. My name is Jenn O'Neil and I am Business Manager in Microsoft's Opportunity Management Center (OMC).

Since your submission referred to actual or potential patent rights, we have forwarded your information to our legal group for their consideration. This group works directly with the various business groups on patent related investments and reviews proposals to determine alignment with our business.

I do want to help set your expectations on follow-up. Given the volume of inquiries they receive, they generally only respond where there is interest on behalf of the business group. Once submitted to the team, I will no longer have any visibility regarding the submission or its status, by design to protect respective IP.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,

Jenn O'Neil
Business Manager

MSNBC is a 24-hour cable news channel in the United States and Canada. Its name is a combination of Microsoft Network and NBC. Additionally, the online news site MSNBC.com is the source of news for MSN, featuring stories from MSNBC, NBC, original pieces and sometimes exclusive content, visited internationally.

Two partnerships with the name MSNBC, were founded in 1996 by Microsoft and General Electric's NBC unit, which is now NBC Universal. Although Microsoft and NBC share operations of the company at its founding, it was announced on December 23, 2005 that NBC Universal would purchase a majority stake in the television network, which left Microsoft with 18%. The two companies remain 50-50 partners in msnbc.com.

MSNBC cable is currently America's 3rd most watched cable news channel,<sup>[1]</sup> behind Fox News and CNN but ahead of Headline News. The news station broadcasts primarily out its studios in Secaucus, New Jersey.<sup>[2]</sup> On October 20, 2006, it was announced that MSNBC will soon be moving from Secaucus to NBC's main headquarters in New York City.

MSNBC, like sister channel CNBC, shares the NBC logo of a rainbow peacock.

Dear Mrs. Canzoneri,

We have received your correspondence; thank you for your interest in Microsoft. Although we value partner input, for the protection of your intellectual property Microsoft's policies preclude acceptance of any unsolicited submissions of ideas and materials. For that reason, we cannot route your idea for further evaluation this time. If you wish to review our policy, please refer to the "Unsolicited Idea Submission Policy" at <http://www.microsoft.com/info\cpyright.htm>

If you wish to learn more about Microsoft products, or submit specific feedback on a Microsoft product, please feel free to avail yourself to the following resources:

- Microsoft Product Support Newsgroups – Collaborate with others who use our products, including Microsoft Most Valuable Professionals (MVPs). Choose an available newsgroup at <http://www.microsoft.com/communities/newsgroups/default.mspix>
- Customer Service Guide – For non-technical assistance with product purchases, subscriptions, online services, events, training courses, corporate sales, piracy issues, and more. Access this site; [http://support.microsoft.com/default.aspx?scid=fh:\[ln\];csshome&style=home](http://support.microsoft.com/default.aspx?scid=fh:[ln];csshome&style=home)
- Make a Product Suggestion – The Microsoft Community is a public forum where you can submit suggestions for Microsoft products and see suggestions that others have made. Community participants vote for each suggestion, and Microsoft uses the votes to help prioritize features in upcoming versions. Each month, Microsoft will respond to the suggestions with the most votes. <http://www.microsoft.com/office/community/en-us/wizard.mspix?type=suggestion&lang=en&cr=US&cat=en-us-office&pt=3a4e9862-cdce-4bdc-8664-91038e3eb1e9>

Partnering with Microsoft

There are two opportunities to forging a closer relationship with Microsoft:

- If you have formed a company please consider becoming a Microsoft partner. The first step is to register at: <http://www.microsoft.com/partner/help/whyregister/>. This site provides access to Microsoft partner information and updates you on programs and resources as they become available.
- If you are an ISV and have developed a software application, please consider certifying your software application in the Microsoft Certified Partner (MCP) Program: <http://www.microsoft.com/partner/partnering/certified/>. This program gives partner access to the best available resources including technical as well as marketing and sales support for a relatively small investment of time and money.

Again, we appreciate your interest in Microsoft and wish you the best of luck in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

Shana Radtke
