Civil Action No.

NOTICE OF A LAWSUIT AND REQUEST TO WAIVE SERVICE OF A SUMMONS

To: Tribune Company

(Name of the defendant or - if the defendant is a corporation, partnership, or association - an officer or agent authorized to receive service)

Why are you getting this?

A lawsuit has been filed against you, or the entity you represent, in this court under the number shown above. A copy of the complaint is attached.

This is not a summons, or an official notice from the court. It is a request that, to avoid expenses, you waive formal service of a summons by signing and returning the enclosed waiver. To avoid these expenses, you must return the signed waiver within ___ days (give at least 30 days, or at least 60 days if the defendant is outside any judicial district of the United States) from the date shown below, which is the date this notice was sent. Two copies of the waiver form are enclosed, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope or other prepaid means for returning one copy. You may keep the other copy.

What happens next?

If you return the signed waiver, I will file it with the court. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, but no summons will be served on you and you will have 60 days from the date this notice is sent (see the date below) to answer the complaint (or 90 days if this notice is sent to you outside any judicial district of the United States).

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will arrange to have the summons and complaint served on you. And I will ask the court to require you, or the entity you represent, to pay the expenses of making service.

Please read the enclosed statement about the duty to avoid unnecessary expenses.

I certify that this request is being sent to you on the date below.

WAIVER OF THE SERVICE OF SUMMONS

To: JoAnna Canzoneri McCormick, prose
(Name of the plaintiff's attorney or unrepresented plaintiff)

I have received your request to waive service of a summons in this action along with a copy of the complaint, two copies of this waiver form, and a prepaid means of returning one signed copy of the form to you.

I, or the entity I represent, agree to save the expense of serving a summons and complaint in this case.

I understand that I, or the entity I represent, will keep all defenses or objections to the lawsuit, the court's jurisdiction, and the venue of the action, but that I waive any objections to the absence of a summons or of service.

I also understand that I, or the entity I represent, must file and serve an answer or a motion under Rule 12 within 60 days from _____, the date when this request was sent (or 90 days if it was sent outside the United States). If I fail to do so, a default judgment will be entered against me or the entity I represent.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Expenses of Serving a Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain defendants to cooperate in saving unnecessary expenses of serving a summons and complaint. A defendant who is located in the United States and who fails to return a signed waiver of service requested by a plaintiff located in the United States will be required to pay the expenses of service, unless the defendant shows good cause for the failure.

"Good cause" does not include a belief that the lawsuit is groundless, or that it has been brought in an improper venue, or that the court has no jurisdiction over this matter or over the defendant or the defendant's property.

If the waiver is signed and returned, you can still make these and all other defenses and objections, but you cannot object to the absence of a summons or of service.

If you waive service, then you must, within the time specified on the waiver form, serve an answer or a motion under Rule 12 on the plaintiff and file a copy with the court. By signing and returning the waiver form, you are allowed more time to respond than if a summons had been served.

II. Basis for Jurisdiction:

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction. Only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case involving the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one state sues a citizen of another state and the amount in damages is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case.

A. What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Federal Questions Diversity of Citizenship Title
 Civil Litigation Murder

B. If the basis for jurisdiction is Federal Question, what federal Constitutional, statutory or treaty right is at issue? Anti Trust

C. If the basis for jurisdiction is Diversity of Citizenship, what is the state of citizenship of each party?

Plaintiff(s) state(s) of citizenship California
 Defendant(s) state(s) of citizenship California, Illinois New York

Robert Hall McCormick (June 8, 1780 - July 4, 1848) was an American inventor, who invented numerous devices including a version of the reaper in which his eldest son Cyrus would patent in 1834.

Robert Hall McCormick was born on the family estate of Walnut Grove in Rockbridge County, Virginia, in the Shenandoah Valley on the western side of the Blue Ridge Mountains. He married Mary Ann Grigsby in 1808 and was granted ownership of Walnut Grove in 1810. Robert and Polly, as Mary Ann was known to friends and family, raised their eight children on the farm there and the kids grew up helping in the shop and the mill. Robert frequently tested himself with small gadgets and inventions around the farm. By 1849, Robert had constructed a partially completed reaper. He eventually decided to formalize some of his work when he applied for a patent in 1830 for a "broom-break", a device for breaking hemp and flax. He also produced a threshing machine, a cleaver sheath of stone, a blacksmith's bellows and a mill-like plow. By 1831, he had completed a reaper. He was encouraged by Polly to give it to their sensitive and business-minded son Cyrus, who was able to improve and patent it in 1834.

Robert Hall McCormick

In addition to Cyrus, his sons include Leander J. McCormick and William Benjamin McCormick. These three brothers moved to Chicago after their father's death, and established the McCormick Harvesting Machine Company. In 2002, Robert and his wife were honored with a variety of wheat named after them, for "inventing, perfecting, manufacturing, and marketing of the mechanical grain reaper" which led to the rise of modern agriculture and wrought one of the greatest advancements in agricultural history. McCormick is a soft red winter wheat (Triticum aestivum L.) developed and released in May 2002 by the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station.

The McCormick Reapers

The McCormick Family and their Mechanical Reaper

Who invented the mechanical reaper is still a point of contention between members of the McCormick family descending from the family of Robert Hall McCormick of Walnut Grove in Rockbridge County, Virginia. Perhaps the debate has more to do with members of the family and the popular history that has come down through the years. Though it has become common knowledge that Cyrus McCormick invented the reaper, it may have actually been his father's genius or a simple invention that led to the family's riches and renown.

Robert Hall McCormick (seen left) was born on the family estate of Walnut Grove on June 8, 1780. He married Mary Ann McCormick February 11, 1808 and was granted ownership of Walnut Grove in 1810. Robert and Polly, as Mary Ann was known to friends and family, raised their eight children on the farm there and the kids grew up helping in the shop and the mill. Robert frequently tested himself with small gadgets and inventions around the farm. By 1849, Robert had constructed a partially completed reaper. He eventually decided to formalize some of his work when he applied for a patent in 1830 for a device he called a "broom-break", a device for breaking hemp and flax. He also produced a threshing machine, a cleaver sheath of stone, a blacksmith's bellows and a mill-like plow.

In 1831 Robert H. McCormick produced what became known as the reaper. According to research compiled by Norbert Lyons, Polly encouraged Robert to give Cyrus (below left) his invention as a gift and allow Cyrus, the sensitive and most business-minded member of the family, to make the most of it. According to multiple accounts from members of the family and close friends, Robert had already invented the reaper after years of working on it, his initial test trials in 1831 and gave it to his son Cyrus as a gift which Cyrus patented in 1834.

In order for Cyrus to patent the reaper himself as inventor, he made improvements to his father's original design. The debate lies in the fact that shortly after his father's death July 4, 1848, Cyrus began advertising himself as the inventor of the reaper. With the patent registered in his name, few outside the family had any reason to dispute his claims. Cyrus had done most of the advertising and publicizing of the reaper and he made the first steps to set up a manufacturing effort in Chicago. The first McCormick factory opened in 1847.

<http://www.sccc.virginia.edu/research/robertmccormick.htm>

A striking piece of evidence against Cyrus McCormick's claims came from the time made in which he supposedly invented the reaper. His father spent twenty years developing the reaper which Cyrus claims failed in a test in the beginning of the summer in 1831. The subsequent trial which followed in July where Cyrus claimed to demonstrate his new reaper occurred only six weeks later. Cyrus, taking his father's reputation as an inventor, managed to construct a new machine of his own invention in six short weeks, while in twenty years his

The first person to convert him was his brother, Leander James McCormick (seen at left). As far as most of the family was concerned, the reaper was a family affair. Leander had also allowed his brother to patent some of the improvements that he had developed for his father's reaper. When his father gave him the reaper, Cyrus promised that any wealth or fame benefits that came to him because of the reaper would be shared with all of the brothers and sisters. Brother's Leander and William waited for Cyrus on a rainy day, but Leander jumped into the reaper's engine. Leander was a partner in the business, as in 1839 Leander and William each received one-fourth of the business and it became Cyrus H. McCormick and brother.

Partners

Cyrus patented a patent infringement lawsuit against the Halsey Company of Rockford, Illinois after the Halsey reaper copied the McCormick's reaper in the Paris Exhibition of 1855. Although Lincoln was hired as a lawyer to represent the Halsey Company, though in the end he was allowed to contribute funds to the defense. The Halsey Company won the case.

Over the next twenty years, the business boomed and Leander's son Robert became very involved in the business. The Great Chicago Fire of 1871 destroyed the entire factory and the McCormicks' homes, but the business quickly recovered. After several short-term contracts splitting the business between the McCormick brothers, in 1879 they formed the McCormick Harvesting Machine Company to manufacture all mechanical harvesters, and Case IH Company in 1901, with Cyrus as president, Leander as vice-president and superintendent of manufacturing with Robert serving as Leander's assistant. Despite the sporadic dissensions, the agreement between the two brothers was severe and Leander essentially retired from active participation in the business in 1870.

... thirty years of business since their father's death, Cyrus... despite legal efforts to maintain it, but the claim as his invention was abandoned. Leander's objection about his brother's claim had led to the change in the company's name in 1879. In 1878, Cyrus hired William Halsey to conduct an investigation to determine if Cyrus had indeed invented the reaper. Halsey's report, known as the Halsey Report, was a surprise to many. It stated that Cyrus had not invented the reaper, but that he had improved upon it. The report also stated that Leander and Cyrus had both contributed to the invention. This report was a major blow to Cyrus's claim of sole invention. In 1880, the year after Cyrus's death, Leander and Cyrus had a final agreement that split the reaper business between the family members, friends and the public. All the rights to the reaper were given to Leander and Cyrus had no say in the matter. In 1904, Robert Hall McCormick (Leander's son and James Hall Steele's nephew) repudiated Leander's claim and moved forward with additional investigations and a brief biography of their grandfather, Robert H. McCormick.

In the end, the publicity behind the name Cyrus H. McCormick was more than Leander's efforts could overcome, but the documentation for a definitive story was quite complex. Beyond the collection of statements that Leander provided and other written by one or more of the time, the only account of Robert McCormick's invention of the reaper is found in Norbert Lyons' The McCormick Reaper Legend published in 1955 in cooperation with the McCormick family.

Proceedings: Order of Dismissal (In Chambers)

On December 17 2009, plaintiff submitted a pro se complaint. On December 17 2009, the court notified plaintiff in writing that the complaint was deficient due to the failure to pay the filing fee or furnish a completed and signed court-approved Declaration in Support of Request to Proceed Without Prepayment of Filing Fees form, including a completed Prisoner Authorization and Certificate of Authorized Officer, and a certified copy of the prisoner-plaintiff trust account statement for the last six (6) months (CV-60P). Plaintiff was advised that failure to pay the fee or file the completed Declaration within THIRTY days would result in dismissal of the action.

Since plaintiff has failed to provide the court with either the filing fee or a completed Declaration within THIRTY days, the action is dismissed without prejudice. Plaintiff may file a new action, but should include a filing fee or a Declaration in Support of Request to Proceed Without Prepayment of Filing Fees form with a new civil complaint to commence that new action. Because the present action is now dismissed, plaintiff should not file a Declaration in Support of Request to Proceed Without Prepayment of Filing Fees form or pay the filing fee in this action. The clerk shall close the file.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 TO SCHEDULE 13D

This Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") by the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation (the "Foundation") on November 20, 1990 is being filed solely to report a decrease in the Foundation's percentage ownership of shares of Tribune Company's common stock by an amount in excess of 1.0% of the total number of outstanding shares of such common stock since October 23, 1992, the date of the Foundation's filing of Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D. Such decrease is attributable to a combination of (i) periodic grants of such common stock which the Foundation has made in furtherance of its charitable purposes; and (ii) increases in the total number of outstanding shares of such common stock which have occurred from time to time.

Pursuant to Rule 101(a) of Regulation S-T adopted by the Commission, as this Amendment No. 2 is the first electronic amendment to the original Schedule 13D, this Amendment No. 2 restates the entire text of the original Schedule 13D, as such Schedule 13D has been amended by Amendment No. 1 and this Amendment No. 2. Pursuant to Rule 101(a) of Regulation S-T, the exhibit to the original Schedule 13D is not restated herein.

ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER.

This Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D relates to the common stock, without par value ("Common Stock") of Tribune Company, a Delaware corporation (the "Issuer"). The address of the principal executive offices of the Issuer is 435 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND.

This Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D is being filed by Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation (the "Foundation"). The Foundation is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") and is classified as a private foundation under Section 509(a) of the Code. The address of the principal business and the principal office of the Foundation is Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, 435 North Michigan Avenue, Suite 770, Chicago, Illinois 60611-4041.

The Foundation is an Illinois not-for-profit corporation incorporated on December 4, 1989 exclusively for charitable, religious, literary, scientific and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, but not limited to, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. It was formed by the trustees of the Robert R. McCormick Charitable Trust (the "Trust") created under the Last Will and Testament of Robert R. McCormick dated December 18, 1954, as amended by Codicil dated January 4, 1955 (the "Will"), pursuant to a plan to reorganize as a not-for-profit corporation in order to take advantage of the flexibility and efficiency of the corporate form and the relative clarity of the law applicable to not-for-profit corporations. The trustees of the Trust were authorized and permitted by provisions of the Will to mandatory distribution requirements under the Code. Based upon such evaluations and the course of future developments, the Foundation reserves the right to take such actions as it deems appropriate in light of the circumstances existing at the time, including, without limitation, making additional purchases of Common Stock or disposing of its shares of Common Stock in the open market, block trades, privately negotiated transactions or otherwise.

On occasion the Trust had made grants of shares of Common Stock in furtherance of its charitable purposes and the Foundation assumed the outstanding grant commitments of the Trust. Although the Foundation does not have any specific plan or proposal to make charitable grants of shares of Common Stock, the Foundation reserves the right to do so in order to satisfy grant commitments.

Other than as set forth above, the Foundation currently has no specific plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the matters described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

To the best knowledge of the Foundation, none of the executive officers or directors of the Foundation has any specific plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the matters described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

(a) As of the date hereof, the Foundation beneficially owns 10,465,112 shares of Common Stock, which represents approximately 15.5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. This percentage is based upon an aggregate of 67,367,779 shares of Common Stock being issued and outstanding as of April 29, 1994 according to the Form 10-Q filed by the Issuer with the Commission on May 10, 1994 for the quarterly period ending March 27, 1994. It is the foregoing percentage that is reported on the cover page of this Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D. However, based upon information obtained from the Issuer, the Issuer also has 1,502,572 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, without par value (the "Preferred Stock"), currently issued and outstanding. The Preferred Stock is entitled to vote together as a class with the Common Stock with regard to all matters submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, with each share of Common Stock being entitled to one vote and each share of Preferred Stock being entitled to 4.58 votes. The Foundation's percentage of the total votes eligible to be cast by holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock voting together as a class is 14.1%.

To the best knowledge of the Foundation, Schedule B attached hereto and incorporated herein sets forth the number and percentage of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by each executive officer or director of the Foundation.

(b) The Foundation has the sole power to vote and dispose of all of the shares of Common Stock which it owns. See Schedule B for information regarding voting power and investment power with respect to any shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by any executive officer or director of the Foundation. Except as set forth in Schedule B, to the best knowledge of the Foundation, each such person has full voting and investment power with respect to any shares of Common Stock indicated therein as being owned by such person.

(c) The Foundation has not effected during the past 60 days any transaction in any shares of Common Stock except for the following:

Charitable grants (no consideration) aggregating 2,859 shares consummated as of April 13, 1994.

Charitable grants (no consideration) aggregating 5,911 shares consummated as of May 12, 1994.

To the best knowledge of the Foundation, Schedule C attached hereto and incorporated herein sets forth all transactions in shares of Common Stock effected during the past 60 days by any executive officer or director of the Foundation.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) Not applicable.

ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

There are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the Foundation, its executive officers or directors or, to the best knowledge of the Foundation, between such persons and any other persons with respect to any securities of the Issuer of a nature required to be disclosed by Item 6.

ITEM 7. MATERIAL TO BE FILED AS EXHIBITS.

There are no exhibits to this Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D.

SIGNATURE

After reasonable inquiry and to the best of my knowledge and belief, I certify that the information set forth in this statement is true, complete and correct.

(1) Each of Messrs. Brumback, Dowdle, Fuller and Madigan have been allocated shares of Preferred Stock in their individual participant accounts in the Tribune Company's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP). The number of shares of Common Stock reported in this column as beneficially owned by such individuals does not include shares of Common Stock to which their allocated number of shares of Preferred Stock are convertible because such individuals do not have the power to decide when or if to convert such shares to Common Stock. The decision whether to convert the Preferred Stock is within the discretion of The Northern Trust Company, as trustee of the ESOP.

(2) Based on 67,367,779 shares of Common Stock outstanding as of April 29, 1994 as reported in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 27, 1994. However, the Issuer has 1,502,572 shares of Preferred Stock issued and outstanding which are entitled to vote as a class with the Common Stock and cast 4.58 votes per share (an aggregate of 6,881,780 votes). Even if the percentage in this column is calculated based upon the total votes eligible to be cast by holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock taken together, the percentage of the total votes held by any executive officer or director, except Mr. Cook, would still be less than 1%. Mr. Cook's percentage of the total votes would be 1.1%.

(3) The number of shares shown in these columns includes the rights to acquire shares pursuant to stock options which are included in the aggregate number of shares beneficially owned by such executive officer or director.
